

Lil's Sweet Italian Sausage with Peppers and Onions

From the Ricci family cookbook

Lil Ricci mailed this recipe to WTAE meteorologist Joe DeNardo in the early '80s. Joe ate our sweet sausage for almost 40 years. Remember: “Joe says it's good!”

You'll need

- 5 lb Ricci's sweet Italian sausage
- Red, yellow and green bell peppers, sliced
- 1 large sweet onion, sliced
- 1 container portobello mushrooms, sliced
- 1 stick butter
- Splash of white cooking wine
- Salt, pepper and garlic powder

Make it

1. Sauté the peppers and onions in butter until soft and translucent. Season with salt, pepper and garlic powder.
2. In another pan, sauté the mushrooms in butter and a splash of wine.
3. Boil the sausage for about 10 minutes, poking holes in it with a fork.
4. Drain, cut into bite-sized pieces and brown them.
5. Add the browned sausage to the peppers, onions and mushrooms. Cook on low for 45 minutes, stirring now and then.

Serve it as an appetizer, on a roll, or over pasta.
